

Net Vet Weekly

Week in Review:

Saying Farewell to Dr. Stein

Congratulations to Larry Stein, Ph.D., on his retirement! Nearly 50 colleagues gathered to wish Dr. Stein well as he prepares to start a new chapter in his life.

Dr. Stein taught anatomy in the Department of Physiological Sciences for 28 years. For the last two years, he also served as the interim department head.

Getting to Know You

Kristy Burch is an administrative Support Specialist in the Veterinary Medical Hospital. Originally from Glencoe, Okla., she graduated from Glencoe Public Schools. Her research interests focus on animals, mainly horses, and indoor/outdoor plants and trees.

In her spare time, Kristy enjoys horses, trail riding and drag racing. Her husband drag races a motorcycle and a car. He got Kristy interested in the sport and she drag races a 1973 Dodge Dart and has even raced her Chevy Tahoe.

Thank You, CVHS!

Thank you to all those who participated in the live dessert auction held during the veterinary center's annual holiday luncheon—both bakers and buyers! A total of $208 was raised for the Stillwater Mission of Hope.

Getting to Know You

Cory Anderson is a Ranch Hand in the Department of Veterinary Clinical Sciences assigned to the CVHS Ranch. Originally from Dillon, Mont., he is currently attending Oklahoma State University with the goal of applying to veterinary college here.

While attending the University of Montana-Western, Cory researched Candida albicans. He is also interested in pursuing an equine residency.

In his spare time, Cory enjoys his dog, Copper, hunting, fishing, roping and sports.

Week Ahead:

Shoppers Needed for Angel Tree

The Stillwater Salvation Army needs more holiday shoppers. There are still more than 80 angels on their tree. If you would like to help brighten someone's holiday, please call Captain Trish at 405-372-1554.

Looking for Forever Homes

Rescued dogs of all breeds and ages are available at OSU's Veterinary Medical Hospital for adoption on a first come/first serve basis. The dogs were rescued by Payne County authorities and have been spayed/neutered and vaccinated. All they need is a forever home. If you are interested, please contact Shelter Medicine at (405) 744-6783.

Favorite Quote: "Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever." – Gandhi

It's Here!

The 2014 issue of Vet Cetera, the annual magazine of the OSU Center for Veterinary Health Sciences, has arrived and will be in your mailboxes soon. You can access the online version here: <http://cvhs.okstate.edu/vet-cetera>.

Happy Holidays

The Oklahoma State University Center for Veterinary Health Sciences wishes you and yours a very happy and healthy holiday season – <mms://video.cvhs.okstate.edu/HolidayCard2014.wmv>. The next issue of Net Vet Weekly will be published Monday, January 5, 2015.

This is a publication of the Oklahoma State University Center for Veterinary Health Sciences. We welcome your comments as well as suggestions for content. Please send all feedback to Derinda Blakney, Coordinator of Public Relations and Marketing.