

The Dogs of Lincoln

During the spring semester veterinary students and faculty teamed up with the Humane Society of Stillwater, the Cimarron Valley Humane Society and students and faculty at Lincoln Academy in Stillwater to launch a pilot program called "The Dogs of Lincoln."

The idea is to teach the dogs basic commands using positive reinforcement training to make them more adoptable. The Lincoln Academy students and faculty were responsible for the dogs during the week. Veterinary students shared their knowledge of dog training and the importance of good animal care. Read more here: <http://cvhs.okstate.edu/news/dogs-lincoln>.
