

CENTER FOR VETERINARY HEALTH SCIENCES Net Vet Weekly

Getting to Know You

Traci Grennan, RVT, is a registered veterinary technician for Community Practice at OSU's Veterinary Medical Hospital. Originally from Oklahoma City, Okla., she earned an Associate in Applied Science Veterinary Technology degree from the Veterinary Technology Program at Tulsa Community College in Tulsa, Okla., in 2013.

Always having a passion for animals, Traci volunteered at the Oklahoma City Zoo for almost 10 years while she attended high school and college. She is interested in exotics/zoological medicine, animal training and behavior, and canine physical therapy. In her spare time, Traci enjoys training her dogs, bike riding and rock climbing.

Favorite Quote: "The greatness of a nation can be judged by the way its animals are treated." - Mahatma Gandhi

One Health Case Studies

The Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges is seeking to integrate One Health concepts into the degree program of health professions students through the case study method of instruction.

Staff Appreciation Day

Please join Dr. Jean Sander, dean of the CVHS, on Wednesday, May 27, at 2 p.m. in the McElroy Hall Auditorium for staff recognition presentations. In addition to longevity awards, the Stratton Staff Award recipient for 2015 will be announced. Following the program, refreshments will be available in the lobby.

Special Seminar

Veterinary Pathobiology and the Oklahoma Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratory will host a seminar on Thursday, May 28. Dr. Sanjay Kapil will present "How to Set Up a PCR Laboratory" at 4 p.m. in Room 259 McElroy Hall. Dr. Kapil is the section head of Virology at OADDL.

Getting to Know You

Aimee Steanson is a Sr. Financial Assistant at OSU's Veterinary Medical Hospital. Originally from Stillwater, Oklahoma, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Family Relations and Child Development from OSU.

In her spare time, Aimee enjoys spending time with her husband, family and pets. She also enjoys bowling, swimming and riding 4-wheelers.

Favorite Quote: "You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink."

OSU OVMA Summer Seminar

Proposals for new, unpublished case studies are due by Friday, June 12, 2015. Learn more at <http://www.aavmc.org/One-Health/Case-Studies.aspx>.

Dog Bite Prevention Tips

National Dog Bite Prevention Week was May 17-22. Here are some tips on how to prevent dog bites as well as some information on how to treat dog bites should someone you know get bitten. <http://goo.gl/at3lwR>.

Regents Distinguished Teacher

Congratulations to Dr. Melanie Breshears on being named a 2014 Regents Distinguished Teacher! Learn more about this alumna's secret to success here: <http://cvhs.okstate.edu/news/job-dr-breshears>.

Navicular Syndrome Seminar

In April, Dr. Dan Burba presented "Navicular Syndrome and Your Horse" as part of the Veterinary Voices Seminar series. If you missed the seminar, it is now available for viewing. Burba is a board certified veterinary equine surgeon at OSU's Veterinary Medical Hospital. Click here to watch the seminar.

The CVHS will host the OSU OVMA Summer Seminar on June 12 and 13, 2015. Topics include companion animal, equine, food animal and general sessions with accreditation modules.

Dr. Theresa Rizzi is hosting a cytology wet lab on Saturday, June 13. The laboratory will be limited to the first 15 registrants. For program details and registration, please visit <http://okvma.org/>.

Nominations Open for "Cowboys in Every County"

The latest project of the Oklahoma Oral History Research Program (OOHRP) at the OSU Library endeavors to document the stories of the University's diverse alumni and showcase the multifaceted nature of Oklahoma. "Cowboys in Every County" aims to record an interview with at least one OSU graduate in every Oklahoma county.

We know there are many OSU Cowboy Veterinarians in Oklahoma! The OOHRP is seeking nominations for alumni residing in Oklahoma who have individual stories that reflect the breath and diversity of the state's history through OSU's legacy.

As OSU prepares to celebrate its 125th anniversary, let's make sure Oklahoma's only veterinary college is well represented. Nominate a veterinary graduate today at <http://cowboys.library.okstate.edu/>.

CENTER FOR VETERINARY HEALTH SCIENCES
Healthy Animals – Healthy People

OFFICE OF ADVANCEMENT
308 MCELROY HALL, STILLWATER, OK 74078
DERINDA BLAKENEY - DERINDA@OKSTATE.EDU