Annual Fall Conference

There is still time to register for the veterinary center's Annual Fall Conference to be held on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 9 and 10, at Wes Watkins Center on the OSU Stillwater campus.

CE is available for veterinarians along with many ancillary activities. If you do not need CE, you may register for alumni events only.

For full details including speakers and to register, visit Fall Conference Registrant Login. If you need additional information on alumni events, please contact Sharon Worrell, alumni affairs and event specialist, at (405) 744-5630 or sworrel@okstate.edu.

Getting to Know You

Torie Garnatz, RVT, VTS, completed training in emergency critical care. Garnatz is the small animal critical care unit technician supervisor and a member of the Academy of Veterinary Emergency and Critical Care Technicians.

Cara Blake, DVM, DACVS, CCRT, is an assistant professor of small animal surgery. Originally from South Weymouth, Mass., she earned her DVM degree from Ross University School of Veterinary Medicine. She is a Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Surgeons-Small Animal and a certified canine rehabilitation therapist. Her research interests include osteoarthritis and gait analysis.

If she were not a veterinarian, Cara would be a pastry chef. She enjoys skiing, snowshoeing, hiking, cooking and baking.

Favorite Quote: "Only those who dare to fail greatly can ever achieve greatly."

Carey McCully, RVT, VTS, completed training in Ophthalmology. McCully is the small animal technician supervisor over five different services and a member of the Academy of Veterinary Ophthalmic Technicians.
