

Protecting Human and Animal Health

Timothy Snider, DVM, PhD, DACVP, recently spoke at the Stillwater Noon Lion's Club luncheon meeting.

Dr. Snider talked about animal-human disease interactions and the role of the veterinarian in diagnosing disease and protecting both human and animal health. He also shared information on diseases in wild and domestic animals and their affect on both humans and animals. Dr. Snider is a professor in the Department of Veterinary Pathobiology.

Interdisciplinary Toxicology Symposium

Congratulations to Jeffrey Krall on winning the undergraduate best poster award for the second year in a row. Kirstin Hester won best poster in the graduate division with Md Ibrahim and Ana Chicas-Mosier tying for second place.

The poster competition kicked off a full afternoon of various toxicology related presentations. Eight graduate fellows presented their work followed by guest speakers Bryan Brooks, PhD, Nancy Denslow, PhD, and Marion Ehrich, PhD. Ehrich presented the 18th Sitlington Lecture in Toxicology

McGill for District 9 Representative

Lawrence (Larry) McGill, DVM, PhD, DACVP, is campaigning to represent Oklahoma, Utah, Kansas, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico as the American Veterinary Medical Association representative for District 9. Voting occurs digitally in March 2018 so please watch for an email from the AVMA containing voting information. McGill is a 1968 DVM graduate and a 2017 Distinguished Alumnus of the veterinary center.

Learn more about Dr. McGill and what he can do for you and the veterinary medical profession at McGill for District 9 AVMA Representative.

Happy 70th CVHS!

On March 1, 1948, then Oklahoma A&M College first opened the doors to the School of Veterinary Medicine. A lot has changed over the last 70 years, including our name. Most important are the many and varied accomplishments made in Oklahoma, the region, and the world by the more than 3,900 veterinarians who earned their DVM degree from Oklahoma State University. To see highlights of the last 70 years, visit 70th Anniversary. Here's to many more!

House Officer Seminar

Leslie Wagner, DVM, will present "Baby Calves Are Not Small Ruminants" on Thursday, March 1, at 8 a.m. in Room 104 at the Veterinary Medical entitled, "Organophosphates -- Past, Present and Future Uses and Toxicities."

Hospital. Wagner is a food animal medicine and surgery resident mentored by Dr. Robert Streeter.

Veterinary Biomedical Sciences Seminar

Josh Van Osdol will present "In Vivo Mapping of Nanobubble Promoted Drug Delivery from Tumor Vasculature" on Thursday, March 1, at 4 p.m. in Room 259 McElroy Hall. Van Osdol is a PhD student and a graduate teaching associate in the Department of Physiological Sciences mentored by Dr. Ashish Ranjan.

CENTER FOR VETERINARY HEALTH SCIENCES
Healthy Animals – Healthy People

OFFICE OF ADVANCEMENT
308 MCELROY HALL, STILLWATER, OK 74078
DERINDA BLAKENEY - DERINDA@OKSTATE.EDU