

Class of 2019 Moves to Clinics

Congratulations to the Class of 2019 on their recent transition to clinics! It's always exciting to step out of the classroom and into the clinical setting as they begin their final year of veterinary college. If you missed the Transition Ceremony, you can view the video at 2019 Transition Ceremony. For the full story, visit Class of 2019 Moves to Clinics.

Dawson Recognized

Dr. Lionel Dawson recently received a very special thank you from three student chapters in recognition of his time spent mentoring these aspiring veterinarians.

Members of the American Association of Bovine Practitioners, Society for Theriogenology and the American Association of Small Ruminant Practitioners presented Dawson with this bovine skull with the reproductive term, "No fetus can beat us" inscribed on it.

Veterinary Center Hosts India Delegation

The Center for Veterinary Health Sciences was delighted to recently host Dr. Purushothaman Sridevi, Dr. Kuthati Gopal, IAS, and Mr. Thiru K. Udumalai Radhakrishnan from India. Sridevi is a professor in the Department of Clinics at Madras Veterinary College in Chennai, India. Gopal is the Principal Secretary to Government for Animal Husbandry, Dairy and Fisheries for the Government of Tamil Nadu Secretariat. Radhakrishnan is the Minister for Animal Husbandry, Dairy and Fisheries for the Government of Tamil Nadu Secretariat.

OSU Animal Relief Fund

As you may know, the OSU Animal Relief Fund was established to provide veterinary medical treatment to animals injured in Oklahoma disasters at no cost to their owners.

We have been treating three horses and one dog burned in the recent Oklahoma wildfires. With tornado season upon us, the OSU Animal Relief Fund needs replenishing.

Please share this link with friends, relatives, colleagues, anyone you know who shares your passion for helping animals and might be able to give to the OSU Animal Relief Fund.

House Officer Seminars

Two House Officer Seminars will be presented on Thursday, May 10, beginning at 8 a.m. in Room 104 at the Veterinary Medical Hospital.

Dr. Vanessa Snyder will present "Pulmonary Carcinoma Mimicking Bronchial Patterns Radiographically in Dogs." She is a small animal medicine and surgery intern mentored by Dr. Mackenzie Hallman.

Dr. Haileigh Avellar is an equine medicine and surgery intern mentored by Dr. Lyndi Gilliam. Avellar will present on an equine toxicity case.
