

CVHS Welcomes New Hospital Director

We are pleased to welcome Jeff Studer, DVM, DACVO, as the new director of the Boren Veterinary Medical Hospital! Dr. Studer is a board certified ophthalmologist and comes to us from BluePearl Veterinary Partners in Oklahoma City. For the full story visit New Hospital Director.

Congratulations, Dr. Gilmour!

Dr. Margie Gilmour has been appointed associate dean of academic affairs effective July 1, 2018. She has served as interim ADAA for the past two years.

"Based on my interactions with Dr. Gilmour the past months and the positive feedback I have received from students and faculty, she is the person I would like to have as a member of my administrative team to lead our office of student and academic affairs," said Dr. Carlos Risco, dean of the veterinary center. "Dr. Gilmour has a clear understanding of issues related to student wellness, diversity and inclusion, and a willingness to lead innovative educational programs and foster development of new teaching initiatives."

Grandparent University 2018

Getting to Know You

Alan Glassman, DVM, is a small animal medicine and surgery intern. Originally from Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, he earned his DVM degree at the University of Calgary. His research interests include zoo and exotic animals.

While attending veterinary college, Glassman spent a week in a field camp in the remote Northwest Territories located in Northern Canada where temperatures were approximately -13° F. In his spare time Alan enjoys ice hockey, running and photography.

Getting to Know You

Thank you to the faculty, staff and students who made Grandparent University 2018 a success for our visitors!

Eight children and their grandparents spent two days learning about various aspects of veterinary medicine and getting a chance to participate in some really cool hands-on activities.
