UNFORGETTABLE, HONEST WORK »

These alumni coded for orange success, shaping the Cowboy culture. As we explore the Code of the West at Fall Conference alumni events, we'll be celebrating Distinguished Alumni honorees for 2017, Drs. Lawrence D. McGill (1968), Cleta Sue Bailey (1970) and Timothy J. Woody (1971).

Is your class coded for success? Nominate a candidate for recognition in 2018 at the nomination page of the Alumni Affairs CVHS website. Nominees are solicited and submitted annually through a simple process. Deadline for nominations is May 1, 2018.

Top class standings for DA awardees:

Orange Pride (Tied for 6 Distinguished Alumni) - 1960, 1963, 1970

Clementine (Tied for 5) - 1953, 1954, 1955

Peachy (Gaining on it with 4) - 1957

Apricot (Tied for 3) - 1964, 1968

How did they live up to the gentleman's agreement known as the Code of the West?

- They took the measure of a person as the ultimate value - The west wasn't won by one.
- Honesty is absolute.
- No matter how weary and hungry they were after long days in the saddle, their classmates (and horse) were tended first.
- Sometimes cursing is necessary and allowed around certain alumni - you know the one.
- They always drink their beverages with their trigger hand - to show friendly intentions.
- They never practice ingratitude. After all, they're Cowboys.
- Courage is a character trait. Cowardly behavior isn't tolerated in any outfit worth its salt.
- They are loyal to their brand - classmates, mentors and the institution who rides with them.
