THE NOT-SO-SECRET CODE MANUAL »

As we all know, the frontier isn't final.

I mean, there are ice zombies and dragons out there that you don't have to squint to see. So as Cowboys, we are continually at combat, seeking out and living the Code of the West (and, well, other worlds) to overcome the odds of foreign or domestic outbreaks. If you're seeking or already coded with a DVM, you work to make our habitat better, safer, more productive and protected from epic flying, scaling, fire-ice breathing monsters. There's a lot of bad stuff out there.

Here's a few code points we consider.

#1 Containment is problematic. We must be physically, mentally and morally fit to fight for what is right.

#2 Performance overload. Wildling support.

#3 Accountability. Our badge of honor is honesty.

#4 Trust. Never betray it.

#5 Defend the weak. Make the most of what equipment we have.

#6 Self-care. Rest, renew and armor up.

#7 Loyalty. Never desert a friend (or family).

#8 Equality. Everyone has the power to make the world a better place.

#9 Be courageous. But, never careless.

#10 Keep your life bright. Display your orange banner.
