

CENTER FOR VETERINARY HEALTH SCIENCES Friday Bit for Alumni and Friends

NAMES, THE FINAL FRONTIER »

The power of a name and its value has long been immortalized in various creative ways. Names are markers of influence and recognition. Let's be honest, language itself revolves around names. So, you have one. We want it. CVHS has dedicated the Academic Center (check). Now, interior naming opportunities are languishing in clean, bright, blank spaces. If you're wishfully envisioning your name stretching out to infinity you know where to look to launch your instant bliss. Hit reply to the Friday Bit for connection to our name engineers. We'll move like greased lightning.

BEAM US UP, SCOTTY! »

Feel the thrill and pay tribute to CVHS while celebrating the greatest veterinary school in the nation at the best homecoming anywhere. The Sea of Orange Parade is October 24, where the veterinary center's 1953 Museum on Wheels leads us piloted by Dr. Bill Clay (1970). Following the CVHS entry is the 4th Annual Scottie Brigade, accompanied by faculty, students, staff and friends with animals or without.

All animals are welcome to participate on a leash or halter and must be current on vaccinations. More details are forthcoming as released but to register your participation please contact me now at 405-744-5630 or simply reply to the Friday Bit. Questions? sworrel@okstate.edu

THESE ARE FAMOUSLY FUTURE-CHIC »

Get into the homecoming spirit by visiting the Student Chapter of American Veterinary Medical Association booth at Walkaround, Friday evening, October 23. SAVMA is selling decorated horse shoes. Get the shoes that gleam like UFOs at the SAVMA booth and support the SAVMA objective of introducing veterinary students to the concept of organized veterinary medicine. SAVMA supports professionalism in veterinary medical education and encourages development of students as leaders in the veterinary medical profession. Proceeds of this event will send students to represent CVHS at the annual SAVMA symposium.

PORTAL TO A NEW DIMENSION »

The Class of 1989 is removing bamboozling obstacles for vet students with a goal of $25k in endowed scholarship funds. Want to help the class reach their goal? One click-reply.
